TEAM NOTES:

- Gilles & Poirier teamed up in summer 2011.
- Gilles grew up in the United States and competed internationally with Timothy McKernan and Zachary Donohue. At the junior level at the U.S. Championships, she has won a pewter medal (4th place) with McKernan, a bronze medal with Donohue, and two silver medals (one with each partner).
- Poirier competed for ten years with Vanessa Crone, winning the Canadian title in 2011. Crone & Poirier finished as high as seventh at the World Championships (in 2010) and won the 2011 Grand Prix Final bronze medal. They were also 2010 Olympic Team members.
- Gilles did not compete during the 2010-11 season, taking time off from figure skating training to give acting a try. She considered several options when she decided to return to the sport, but did not find a perfect fit until her tryout with Poirier.
- Poirier studies linguistics at the University of Toronto, while Gilles studies creative arts at Ryerson University.
- Gilles became a Canadian citizen on December 17, 2013.

TEAM NOTES:

- Orford & Williams began skating together in May 2010.
- Orford previously skated with Malcolm Rohon-O'Halloran.
- Williams had several partners before Orford, including Olga Lioudvinevitch and his sister, Alicia Williams.
- Williams had decided to take a year off from skating after his partnership with Lioudvinevitch ended in 2010. He had moved back home to Alberta when Orford contacted him for a tryout. When that was successful, he had to make a quick decision to move to Vancouver to skate with her. They medaled at their first JGP event, just four months later.
- When leaving Russia after 2012 Rostelecom Cup, Orford & Williams had to leave their skates at airport security. Their skates were mailed to them, but they did not arrive before the team had to leave for NHK Trophy a week later, so they competed in Japan wearing old skates. Williams's boots were held together with duct tape. They skated well and finished fourth.

Short Dance: 59.85, Québec Sectionals

Free Dance: 95.24, Québec Sectionals

Total Score: 155.09, Québec Sectionals

TEAM NOTES:

- Poulin & Servant started skating together in April 2009.
- They only missed the podium by .21 in their first JGP event in the fall of 2010. It took two years before they finally reached the podium on the JGP, winning two bronze medals in the 2012 series.
- Poulin previously skated with Simon Mondor.
- Servant previously skated with Joanna Salvagna and trained in Scarborough, ON.
- Servant suffered a stress fracture in his foot shortly after the 2013 Canadian Championships. A long recovery and related injuries forced the team to miss the entire 2013-2014 season. Servant was injured again during the 2015 Skate Canada Challenge last month, but the team was able to complete the competition and qualify for Canadians

TEAM NOTES:

- Weaver & Poje began their partnership in July 2006.
- Weaver is from the U.S. and competed on the JGP circuit with Charles Clavey before moving to Canada to skate with Poje.
- Poje previously skated with Alice Graham and Alexandra Nino.
- Weaver & Poje won bronze medals at their first four major competitions together, including their first Canadian Championships.
- Weaver became a Canadian citizen in 2009.
- Weaver broke her ankle in December 2012, which forced the team to withdraw from the 2013 Canadian Championships. The injury was initially assumed to be season-ending, but Weaver's tenacity saw the team back on the ice in time to train for the 2013 World Championships, where they finished fifth with two inspired performances. In April 2013, Weaver underwent more surgery to have the hardware removed from her ankle.
- Weaver & Poje made their first Olympic team in 2014. The following month, they won their first World medal, a silver.
